

Meeting Room

This policy may be modified and updated as necessary by the SWCPL Board of Trustees.

Library meeting areas provide space for programs either sponsored by the library or initiated by the public for cultural, educational, informational, recreational, or civic purposes. The meeting rooms are available to all groups, regardless of the individual beliefs and affiliations of their members.

Use of the SWCPL meeting rooms does not in any way constitute an endorsement by the library of the group's policies or beliefs. Any misrepresentation of library support will result in the loss of meeting room use privileges for the group.

If at any time the conduct of the group, or any member of the group, becomes disruptive, abusive, or dangerous to individuals, services, library materials, exhibits, furnishings, or the building the use of the rooms will be terminated. The Director reserves the right to limit meeting room use in order to avoid monopolization.

Guidelines for reserving rooms

- Rooms are available during regular library hours on a first-come-first-served basis.
- Availability for use, including setup and cleanup, outside of regular library hours is at the discretion of the Director.
- Reservations that extend beyond the library's regular hours must be made at least five days in advance.
- Individuals reserving rooms must be at least 21 years old.
- When a conflict occurs, priorities for use of the meeting rooms are as follows:
  1. Library sponsored or co-sponsored events
  2. Not-for-profit organizations/clubs/government
  3. For-profit organizations (training or meeting events)
  4. Private events (showers, birthdays, receptions)

Room reservation requests may be made in person or through submission of the online form. However, the meeting areas' agreement form must be completed and turned in prior to the request being approved and finalized. To submit the online form, please email it to the library director at vbuilt@swcplib.com. Room reservation forms are available at the library or from the library's website, <http://www.swcplib.com/>.

Cancellations

SWCPL retains the right to cancel any meeting room reservation for operational reasons. As much notice as possible of a canceled reservation will be provided. Groups holding reservations are requested to notify the library of their event cancellation at the earliest possible date in order to free the meeting room for other use. Groups failing to notify SWCPL of cancellations may be denied future use of the meeting rooms. The SWCPL Director is authorized to deny use of the meeting rooms to any group that violates these regulations or any other SWCPL policy.

Responsibilities of Users

- Groups using the room must return it to the state in which it was found.
- Groups are responsible for setup and cleanup of the room, unless the required fee has been paid.
- Each group must furnish their own supplies and refreshments.
- Groups are responsible for removing their trash.
- The kitchen area and its appliances may be utilized but must be cleaned thoroughly after use.
- No alcoholic beverages are to be served. No red, purple, orange, or dark-colored beverages, other than coffee or tea, may be served.
- No smoking or open flames (candles/matches) are allowed anywhere on library property.
- Children who attend events with an adult are the responsibility of the adult before, during and after the event.
- Groups should notify library staff of any problems.

Room Use Guidelines

- Children's groups may use the rooms only when under the continuous supervision of an appropriate number of adults.
- Rooms may not be used for partisan political rallies.
- Normal noise levels and appropriate conduct will be expected of groups utilizing the meeting rooms.
- Buying, selling, and advertising of products and services are permitted on library property only in support of the library, or by special permission of the Director.
- No admission may be charged to anyone attending a meeting. Groups, however, may make normal collections of dues from their own members.
- Participants may be charged a fee to cover the cost of materials used, such as craft supplies, printed materials, forms and other items needed to conduct the program.
- Publicity for a meeting must not be worded in a manner that implies library sponsorship of the group's activities. The library address or phone number may not be given as a contact.

Fees and Charges

Room Use Fees

Community Rooms A & B: Not-for-profits and tax-supported institutions, i.e., government entities and public schools, may use the community rooms free of charge. All other groups will be subject to the room fee schedule.

- A $50 refundable deposit is required at the time the reservation is made. The deposit will be refunded within five days after the event, if the room is found to be in satisfactory condition. There are no partial refunds.
- A $30 nonrefundable staffing fee will be charged for room use outside of regular library hours.
- A $30 nonrefundable fee will be required for staff to set up and/or tear down meeting rooms.
- Any damage to the room by an individual group will be charged to the group.

Auditorium: All individuals, groups and organizations are subject to auditorium usage fees.

- Fees for use of the auditorium are dependent upon the needs of the individual group.
  1. For meeting use only, there is a $50 deposit that will be refunded if the room is found to be in satisfactory condition.
  2. For use that includes use of auditorium seating and/or audio-visual equipment, there is a non-refundable fee of $75 for the first two hours and a nonrefundable hourly rate of $25 for use after the first two hours.
- A $30 nonrefundable staffing fee will be charged for room use outside of regular library hours.
- A $30 nonrefundable fee will be required for staff to set up and/or tear down meeting rooms.
- Any damage to the room will be charged to the group.

Liability

Each entity that reserves library space assumes full responsibility for compliance with this policy and for any damage incurred resulting from the use of the facilities. Abuse of the facilities, or violations of the policy will be sufficient cause to deny further use of the meeting areas and may result in a minimum charge of $50.

SWCPL does not assume any responsibility for the security of personal items.
